PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Joshua Norton was the one and only Emperor of the United States and truly one of my favorite characters of American history. Before I discuss why I think it is important to remember Emperor Norton, here is a little background about the individual who took the title of Emperor of the United States and Protector of Mexico. Joshua Norton was born in England, moved to South Africa and then came to the United States sometime in the late 1840s. He was a successful businessman who moved from Boston to San Francisco. He tried to corner the market on rice and failed. He was ruined. He disappeared for a while and in September 1859 he sent what we would today call a press release to the major newspapers of San Francisco wherein he said that due to the majority of citizens asking for it, he was declaring himself emperor of the United States. Over twenty years Emperor Norton issued many proclamations. Some called for the abolition of Congress, but some we would recognize in today's America. (Alright we might hear about abolishing Congress today but the others are possible.) For example he called for an end to all corruption, he pushed for equal treatment of all especially immigrants and minority communities, he believed strongly in the separation of church and state even going as far as prohibiting the enforcement of Sunday Blue Laws because they are discriminatory. He was one of the first people to raise the idea of a bridge linking Oakland and San Francisco. He supported women's suffrage and thought that taxes should be fair and all people should be entitled to basic services. He knew Mark Twain, who later based characters on the Emperor in Huck Finn (specifically the duke and the king). At some point the Emperor was so famous in San Francisco that he actually issued his own money and it was accepted

From Rabbi Kogan - Rabbi Kogan is Going to School

Dear Friends of Hillcrest Jewish Center,

A little over a month ago I told you about my new journey in life as a military chaplain.

My first drill will take place in October and that is when I actually begin to serve and hopefully to make a difference. I received my uniform and my military ID, and my last name and rank have already been sewn onto the uniform (see picture). For me, the most exciting feature of my new uniform is the small Tablets of the Law above my name. That tells everyone that I am not only a Chaplain, but a Jewish Chaplain. If you pause for a minute and reflect on the fact that the U.S. Army has an official distinctive insignia for Jewish Chaplains, you will have to conclude, as I do, that we are very blessed to live in the United States of America.

The other exciting and somehow anxiety-provoking news related to my new journey as a U.S. Army chaplain is that I need to go to Chaplain School. As you can imagine, like most of you, I haven't been in school in a while. Being a rabbi is a life-long learning experience, but beginning on January 19, 2023, I will be attending Chaplain School with about 60 other army chaplains from all over the United States - a few other Jewish ones, most of them not. Chaplain School takes place at Fort Jackson, South Carolina.

Fort Jackson is the U.S. Army's main production center for Basic Combat Training. Each year the installation trains roughly 50 percent of all soldiers and more than 60 percent of women entering the Army. Chaplain School lasts three months, and while you can break it down, I will be doing most of it between January 19 and March 28, 2023.

While Chaplain School trains the chaplains in pastoral skills (something I humbly hope I am good at by now), the main purpose of the school is to expose the religious leaders who will serve in the U.S. Army to the Army itself, its culture, its many rules and regulations, its history, and its distinctive language, including countless acronyms like DOD, AT, TY, DFAC, MRE, and many more. I will be sitting in a classroom, taking notes, and learning new stuff. I also learned from another rabbi who was there a year ago, that Chaplain School involves PT (Physical Training) every day beginning at 4:30 AM. I also know that I will be the oldest student in the class, hence my understandable anxiety.

Having said so, there is an extra motivation in me going to Chaplain School, and that is to show my children and my congregants that it is never too late to learn something new and to take on new challenges. I tell my adult children with a sense of pride, "Abba is going to school!" And I tell all of you as well, with the same sense of pride, "Rabbi Kogan is going to school!"

The HJC leadership and I will start working on a plan for the little over two months that I will be away. The plan will include our wonderful and skillful lay-leaders and hopefully, visiting rabbis, cantors, or rabbinical students. Stay tuned.

This new journey of mine represents an adjustment for me and for my family.

While the time I will take off to go to Chaplain School and to fulfill my new Army obligations is contemplated in my contract, I am aware that it will still require some adjustment for you as well. I thank you in advance for your good will and flexibility. Perhaps you may want to think that while I am away serving, by keeping our shul vibrant and energetic, you are serving with me.

Last but not least, since we are still in our main holiday season, let me wish all of you a Gmar Chatimah Tova, Chag Sameach, and a good and sweet year.

Rabbi Manes Kogan

 in many of the establishments in the city. When he was arrested for vagrancy, the local newspapers protested and eventually the chief of police released him, and from then on he was saluted by police officers in the street. He frequently gave out nobility to youngsters who did a service for him or whom he thought just needed cheering up. Over 10,000 people attended his funeral.

So why do I bring this up? I learned about Joshua Norton while reading Neil Gaiman's Sandman graphic novels where his story is used as a metaphor for the power of dreams and how if a person can fulfill their dreams, then they will live a happy life. It teaches us that if a person perseveres, they can build the life they want and contribute to a better society in their own way. One of my dreams growing up was to be president of Hillcrest and to help Hillcrest continue to succeed. I am realizing that this particular dream is a much harder one to accomplish than I thought. There are numerous issues that face a large conservative synagogue in Queens and every possible one of them is hitting Hillcrest at the same time. I am sure most of you did not have the same dream I did (who really dreams of being president of a shul). I am sure however that you all dream of a Hillcrest that is secure in its future, running great programs, and welcoming new members. I chose to follow my dream involving Hillcrest as difficult as it is. I am doing the work needed to achieve my dreams for a future of Hillcrest. Will you join me?

SISTERHOOD

Sunday, October 23rd will be a very special day for Sisterhood. We will be celebrating our 83rd Anniversary with a sumptuous luncheon catered by Bagel Boss of Roslyn. Our guest speaker will be Barbara Kaplan, President of the Brooklyn, Queens, Long Island Region of Women's League.

All members of our congregation, friends and family are welcome. The cost is $36 per person. If you would like to become a Sponsor, just add an additional $36 to your payment for a total of $72. All checks should be made payable to Sisterhood Hillcrest Jewish Center and must be returned with the completed tear-off slip by Friday, October 14th. See the separate flyer enclosed in the envelope.

For the comfort of all attending, we are seating only 6 people at a table.

This is a great occasion to thank all the women who have worked so tirelessly over the years to provide us with in-person and virtual programs, including bus trips, luncheons, Shalach Manot bags, a fabulous gift shop, mitzvah projects, and those who have helped to refurbish areas of our Synagogue.

The Sisterhood Board of Directors is looking forward to seeing you on October 23rd at 11:00 A.M.

We have additional High Holiday greeting listings: Roxanne Solarsh and Meryl Alpert.

Our November program will be held on Monday, November 14th at 12:30. This will be a virtual presentation.

Karen Rothman, Sisterhood President

MEN'S CLUB

We of the Hillcrest Jewish Center Men's Club could not have been more satisfied with the outcome of our paid-up membership barbecue on Sunday, September 11th, given the foul weather with which we were presented that afternoon. The planned parking lot event, almost at the spur-of-the-moment, had to be relocated inside the Moreida Auditorium. The out-of-door grills were well protected from Mother Nature's wet contribution. The many volunteer food-servers valiantly braved the elements in satisfying the 100+ hungry attendees with multiple serving trays of burgers, hot dogs and chicken. Salads galore, water, soft drinks and watermelon all made the dining experience one to savor. Musical background selections from Sinatra to Joel (Billy, that is) added to the dining experience. Also on the docket was a very successful 50/50 Raffle, which rewarded the winner with $250.00. The winner then donated $50 back to Men's Club.

We remembered 9/11, given the tragic events on this day in 2001, with a Robert Merrill recorded rendition of God Bless America, accompanied by the voices of all our attendees.

A special shout-out has to go to HJC's own Cantor-Emeritus Moti Fuchs and wife Lesley, with their long-awaited and anticipated homecoming.

Men's Club reminds you of our upcoming offerings. We will have Pizza in the Sukkah on Thursday, October 13th at 6:00 PM. It is free, but reservations are required. This will be followed by a Sukkot-themed movie night in the Moreida.

Also on the docket are Military Bridge and World Wide Wrap. Please check future HJC Bulletins and emails for dates and times.

Joel Berkowitz

SOMETHING DIFFERENT

On the night of Saturday, November 5th at 7 P.M., Hillcrest Jewish Center will be hosting an art auction.

You are probably thinking, "Another art auction? How is that different?" It is different because this will be a virtual auction. You won't have to leave your home to attend. It will be conducted on the internet. You won't have to purchase a ticket. You just register to receive the link you will need to participate. Registration is free.

Here's how it works:

You can pre-register on Monday, October 24th starting at 9 A.M. EST. Go on-line to www.bid.marlinart.com. Scroll to the banner that reads Hillcrest Jewish Center to fill out the registration form. Starting on Monday, October 31st at 9 A.M. EST through Saturday November 5 at 7 P.M. EST, following the procedure already described, you can register for the auction, and you can preview the art. This pre-auction period works like a silent auction. You can place a bid on anything that catches your eye. You can change your bid at any time or enter a maximum bid. Remember registration is free.

The first 75 people who register are eligible to win a $100 VISA gift certificate. The winner will be announced during the live auction.

At 7 P.M. November 5th the live auction will begin.

Since this is a virtual auction, anyone in the United States can participate. Send a copy of the flyer to your friends and relatives who live near and far so they can participate.

Purchased art will be shipped free of charge. Art sold to those who live in a 30- mile radius of Hillcrest will be shipped to Hillcrest for pick-up.

We are looking forward to "seeing" you – virtually – on November 5th.

Kathy Lewis

OHR CHADASH A Monumental Year Begins

In recent history, the date September 11th is regarded as a Day of Infamy, not unlike December 7th. However, for Ohr Chadash, September 11, 2022, was a celebratory day, for it marked the start of our fifteenth year of instructing Jewish youth in the joys of our faith. Happily, in addition to the Ohr Chadash returnees, the school roster now includes nine new students, with hopes of several more to come. Furthermore, we are glad to welcome back Morah Lynne Blander as our music teacher.

Parents, students, and teachers gathered in the spacious Moreida area of Hillcrest Jewish Center, the host synagogue for the school's fall semester, as Morah Lynne provided a lively musical welcome which had everyone in attendance clapping their hands and singing along to familiar tunes. Morot Marina and Zehava spoke of the school and what their children would learn in the months ahead. Morah Shari enlightened the parents as to the special experiential programs their children could look forward to in the months ahead: a unique Hanukkah celebration, an extraordinary Purim event, and a commemorative program in honor of the 75th Anniversary of the establishment of the modern State of Israel.

Rabbi Manes Kogan officially greeted the assemblage and welcomed the student body to its home for the first portion of the school year. He spoke of the upcoming Tishrei holidays, and, as is done six days a week during the month of Elul, he magnificently blew the shofar, ending with a Tekiah Gadolah which no doubt could be heard all along Union Turnpike into Nassau County. When the rabbi finally concluded, there was a rousing round of applause and awestruck cheers of "Yasher Koach".

As Arlene Ratzabi of the Ohr Chadash School Board graciously invited parents to partake of a delectable breakfast of bagels, bialys, lox spread, Danish, and coffee, the children proceeded to their respective classes for the official start of their day's learning.

At the conclusion of classes, the students returned to the Moreida area for Recap Time, during which they enjoyed a brisk game of Shimon Omer, better known as "Simon Says" in English, conducted by Morah Marina.

Before leaving for the day, both returning and new students were given gift bags, filled with a Hebrew graphics embossed pencil (to begin the year on the "write" foot), an apple, a jar of honey, and a water bottle emblazoned with the Ohr Chadash logo.

Our teachers would like to express our appreciation to Allegra Horn and Sabrina Weiler, our Gesher graduates from last year, who loved attending our school so much, that they volunteered to return this year to help out in whatever capacity they can. They are our MITs – Morot-in-training and we are truly fortunate to have them at the ready whenever they are needed. There's no doubt that the love and devotion our educators have for our faith, for teaching, and for our children is reciprocated by our youngsters. We know that the Ohr Chadash experience will be one long remembered by all our attendees, and will have a positive lifelong influence upon their characters and their contributions and impact upon their Jewish communities.

We wish everyone a Sweet, Healthy, and Joyous 5783. Morah Shari

ATTENTION COLLEGE STUDENTS OF HJC

OUR SIMCHA TREE

Our lovely Simcha Tree in the Upper Moreida was given to us by a donor who wanted to see our families' and friends' milestones and achievements commemorated while raising funds for our beloved Hillcrest Jewish Center.

Did you know that in addition to individual leaves we are offering an option to celebrate simchat with a group leaf? When a fellow congregant has a milestone birthday, anniversary, or big achievement (retirement, award, etc.) a group of friends, and/or family, can get together to commemorate the happy occasion with a group leaf. To start a group leaf, simply contact the office and let us know the simcha leaf recipient and the happy occasion. A notice will be shared with the congregation announcing that a group leaf has been started. A minimum pledge of $25 is required for all participants who wish to be part of the group leaf. Each donor should contact the office to add their pledge. Once $360 has been pledged, the leaf will be ordered. The leaf will be announced in the Bulletin following its mounting, including the listing of all those who participated in its purchase. As with all leaves, the proceeds will go into the Capital Improvements Fund.

When you purchase a leaf for our Simcha Tree, the tree grows and grows. Each gold leaf on the Simcha Tree marks a lasting memory of a joyous simcha in the lives of members of Hillcrest Jewish Center.
