JEWISH CENTER BULLETIN

Vol. 85, No. 1

September 1, 2024

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Hillcrest Family,

As we step into September, the warm embrace of summer fades, and we turn our hearts and minds to the approaching High Holidays. This year holds special significance as we welcome back our beloved Rabbi, now serving not only as our spiritual leader but also as an official chaplain in the U.S. Army. On September 8th we are celebrating his 18th year at Hillcrest, marking nearly two decades of guidance, wisdom, and community.

This is a time of joy at our shul, a time when we reconnect with familiar faces we may not see throughout the year. The High Holidays are eagerly anticipated by all, especially our children and grandchildren, who delight in the sound of the Shofar and the festive Sukkah decorations. The lingering warmth of the season allows us to enjoy outdoor activities like the Men's Club barbeque and the Hillcrest Golf Outing. Our Friday golf group continues to thrive, welcoming new members, and will play on until the chill of winter arrives.

However, amid our celebrations, we must not lose sight of the challenges that persist. Israel, our homeland, remains under constant threat, surrounded by those who seek its destruction or, at the very least, inflict harm and sorrow. Our unwavering support for Israel continues to be steadfast, especially as we approach the one-year mark since the events of October 7th. The atmosphere remains tense, with protesters fueling discord and antisemitism on the rise.

Here at Hillcrest, the safety and security of our community are paramount. Significant investments have been made to bolster our security measures, including armed guards during services and at other times when the building is occupied, and the installation of interior and exterior cameras, thanks to state grants. But security is a collective responsibility. We urge all members to stay vigilant – ensure doors are secure behind those entering and leaving, and remain aware of your surroundings. In the coming months, we will be conducting further training for our members and staff, so everyone is prepared to act swiftly and correctly in any emergency.

On a brighter note, Hillcrest is vibrant and full of life, with exciting plans for the year ahead. We are thrilled to announce the renewal of our contract with our beloved Cantor, Rachel Black. After her graduation in June, she will join us as a full-time Cantor and engagement director, a role in which she will undoubtedly continue to enrich our community.

Stay tuned for more exciting activities and initiatives in the months to come. Together, we will continue to build and strengthen our Hillcrest family.

Warm regards, Simeon Saturn, President

He did it!

"I am very happy to share with you that I have completed all my requirements at the United States Army Institute for Religious Leadership, and that I am now a qualified chaplain in the US Army. Thank you so much to all of you for your support and good wishes."

Friday, August 16th, was the formal graduation ceremony and Silvia, Daniela, Ilan and Abby attended the event.

All of us at Hillcrest are so proud of Rabbi Kogan's accomplishments.

From Rabbi Kogan

Dear Friends of Hillcrest Jewish Center,

As I write these words, I am on my way back from Fort Jackson, South Carolina. As you may be aware by now, I successfully completed the chaplain course, graduated with honors, and received the award for best oral and written communication, one of the four distinctions awarded to my class of eighty-eight peers.

If you detect a sense of pride in my first few lines, you are correct. While I have accomplished many important milestones in my professional career, this was one of the most challenging ones and perhaps one of the most rewarding ones, as well.

It is not a secret that I travelled to South Carolina with a sense of trepidation and concern. After all, I had attempted this journey before, and I wasn't successful. By not giving up, I was rewarded with a wonderful experience, one that I look forward to sharing with you in the upcoming days. For the time being, let me say that I met wonderful people, made new friends, learned valuable skills, and returned home enriched by the experience.

I want to take this opportunity to thank all of you, the members of Hillcrest Jewish Center, for supporting me in this personal and professional endeavor, one that was important to me. Especially, I would like to thank the many HJC members who stepped up to assume the various responsibilities involved in keeping our wonderful shul and community going strong and vibrant. I am very proud of all of you.

When I arrive from Fort Jackson on August 18th, I plan on hitting the ground running. In a few days, we will celebrate Ben Weiner's Bar Mitzvah, then at the beginning of September, I will resume my Talmud classes and start working on a few new series of classes for the upcoming year (stay tuned!). A big appointment coming up is my haircut at the barbershop to make sure I look my best for the Gala Dinner on September 8th, and then it's time to get ready for the last preparations before Rosh HaShanah, Yom Kippur, and the Tishrei Holidays.

My family and I have completed 18 years at Hillcrest Jewish Center. When I look back at all these past years, my heart is full of gratitude and appreciation for all your kindness and blessings.

I look forward to many more years together, during which we can learn, support each other, celebrate smachot, and grow together.

With love and appreciation. L'Shana Tova Tikateivu,

Rabbi Manes Kogan

Editor's comment:

As Rabbi Kogan wrote in his first sentence, he was on his way back from South Carolina. What he didn't say was that Silvia and Abby were in the car with him. He dictated his message to Abby and she forwarded it to me. He wanted to be sure his monthly message got into the September Bulletin. That's our Rabbi and his family. Thank you! Joan H.

FLUSHING JEWISH COMMUNITY COUNCIL

Did you know that the Flushing Jewish Community Council (FJCC), of which Hillcrest Jewish Center is a member, offers many free or low-cost services to Queens residents? These include mental health services, parent guidance, classes for learning English, and a kosher Food Pantry. I was asked to join the Board a few years ago.

Counseling is offered both in person (in Queens and Long Island), and virtually, through Queens Long Island Community Services (QLICS). The counselors include a variety of mental health professionals, such as licensed social workers, pre-licensed "limited permit holders", and counseling interns in the fields of social work, marriage and family therapy, and mental health counseling. Individual and couple or family counseling is available. They accept most insurances and offer a sliding scale for those without insurance.

In addition, a therapy group called, "HEART" (Healing from Emotional, Anger and Relational Trauma) is offered as well. The focus of the therapy group is on recognizing, understanding, and coping with the painful emotions that can result from traumatic relationships. The HEART group meets virtually through Zoom on Wednesday evenings, for 4-to-8-week segments at a cost of $10 per session.

Parenting workshops are also available for parents of children 0-18 years of age (grouped by age of children). These sessions are sponsored by FamilyKind, an agency that helps families going through a divorce.

For more information about all of these counseling services, please contact FJCC at 718-461-6393.

If you are looking for a place to do some volunteer work, come help out at FJCC's Food Pantry! Volunteers who speak Chinese are especially needed. The Food Pantry is operated by the FJCC under the auspices of the Food Bank for New York City, with the cooperation of the MET Council (Metropolitan Council on Jewish Poverty). Food Pantry volunteers distribute food once a month at Temple Beth Sholom located at 171-39 Northern Blvd. in Flushing. The food is all kosher and includes fresh produce, along with canned goods, rice, pasta, beans and sometimes fresh eggs. Passover foods are available at holiday time, as well as apples and honey for Rosh Hashanah. Food is available to people of any and all religious and ethnic backgrounds. Volunteers are needed to pack the food, usually on the third Monday morning of each month and to distribute the food, usually on the third Tuesday morning of each month. The next packing of food will be on Monday, September 16th and distribution will be on Tuesday, September 17th. If you are available and interested in helping out in this monthly mitzvah, please call the Hillcrest office and leave your name, and cell phone number and I will call you back with the details. Sherry Reisner

MEN'S CLUB

"The Summer Wind came blowin' in from across the sea...." (Just thought I'd throw that in JUST to get your attention.)

The Jewish year 5784 is fast winding down. Time to think about resolutions for the New Year. One you may well-consider is getting actively involved with Hillcrest Jewish Center's Men's Club. The camaraderie amongst its brethren is breathtaking. Come get a whiff of what we're all about by joining us on Sunday afternoon, September 15th, in the parking lot, weather permitting (otherwise in the Moreida Auditorium) for our traditional end-of-summer season, paid-up-membership barbecue. We'll have all the accoutrements: food, drinks, entertainment, dancing, singing, conversing, 50/50 Raffle - NEED WE SAY MORE?? Current members delinquent with their yearly dues may turn in the $45 at the door (cash or personal check, payable to Men's Club, HJC). Wives and significant others are whole-heartedly invited to this free membership event. Single women of our synagogue are also invited and a donation to our cause would be greatly appreciated.

Other Men's Club events on the horizon include PIZZA IN THE SUKKAH, MOVIE NIGHT, KARAOKE NIGHT, MILITARY BRIDGE ...and more.

NOT ENOUGH? Ya 'say ya' want more? Tell ya' what we're gonna' do. You're going to contact Men's Club President (mpguttman@gmail.com) with your own suggestions for future group-events: Plays? Movies? Sports & Entertainment?

Finally, our Rabbi Kogan has RETURNED to Hillcrest Jewish Center. We salute him !

*Joel Berkowitz
Men's Club Co-VP*

THOUGHTS ON SAFETY

Does a trusted close neighbor have a key to your house or apartment? Do you tell them when you are going away for a few days? This is especially important for a single person household.

I checked with the HJC office, and they have my daughter's and son's names and current phone numbers. It's strictly optional, but you might want to check to see if your emergency contacts are current.

YOM KIPPUR MEMORIAL BOOK, DEADLINE SEPT. 18

During the High Holiday season we pray for life for ourselves and for dear ones. On Yom Kippur, at the Yizkor Service, even as we pray for life, we remember those who have gone to eternal life and whose memories are an inspiration to us. For this Yizkor Service, the Center publishes a special Yizkor Memorial Book in which are printed the names of those who were a blessing to us in their lives and whose memory we cherish and wish to honor.

Please list the names of your dearly departed to be included in the Yizkor Memorial Book on the form below and return it to the Center office. Names received after September 18th may not be able to be included in this year's book.

There are two separate listings in the Memorial Book. One listing contains all the plaque names mounted in the Mowshowitz Sanctuary and the Ferkauf Chapel. There is no charge for the names in this section.

The other listing contains the names of members and the person(s) they wish to remember. We do not automatically reprint names. ONLY NAMES SUBMITTED THIS YEAR will be printed in the Memorial Book.

MEMORIAL BOOK FOR THE YOM KIPPUR YIZKOR SERVICE

- Please insert exactly the same as last year's Memorial Book.
- Please note additions or corrections.
- Please add new listings.

As the giving of tzedakah is a prime theme of the High Holidays, your donation is appropriate and appreciated. Each individual name listing by members will require a $25 minimum contribution. The non-member contribution is $30 per listing
